THE RIVIERA HOTEL AND CASINO is proud to present Emmy Award-winning comic Louie Anderson in concert at the resort's famous venue, the Top of the Riv Ballroom, on Friday and Saturday, 14 & 15. Anderson will bring his contemporary observations on obesity, alcoholism, fame, success and family to the famous stage for two hilarious performances.

louie anderson

TO STAR AT TOP OF THE RIV

On October 10, 1978, young Louie jumped on stage for the first time in a 50-seat comedy club in Minneapolis. The debut was the result of a dare from a coworker at a children's home where Louie worked as a counselor for abused children.

"Louie reflects, "I remember whatever jitters i felt were overwhelmed by the exciting prospect of all the attention and love seated in front of me. With the first laugh, I knew I was hooked...."

A compulsive personality in need of more laughs and bigger audiences, it did not take Anderson long to become a "big fish in a little club." He drew on his obvious girth for laughs. And, by accident, he found his family to be another gold mine for laughs.

In 1981, Louie was named a winner at the St. Louis Comedy Competition, where he met Henny Youngman and began to write jokes for the King of One-liners.

In 1985, with the support of his hometown, Anderson produced his own comedy special which was later sold to Showtime. Proving his widespread appeal, it became the highest rated program that month on the Cable Network. He then moved on to countless appearances with Jay Leno, David Letterman, Joan Rivers and Arsenio Hall, and on "Comic Relief." He co-starred on such television shows as "Grace Under Fire," "Remington Steele," and the feature films "Quicksilver," "Coming To America" and the animated feature, "Bebe's Kids," in which his voice is that of a lead character.

Mirroring millions of other adult children of alcoholics, the book depicted Louie's often painful and always touching relationship with his alcoholic father. In 1990, Anderson's mother died and with his father's death, the losses had a profound effect on him. Having already done three specials for Showtime and HBO, Anderson took some time to examine his life, fame, success and family. Three years later, he penned his second book, "Good-bye Jumbo. Hello Cruel World," published by Viking.

Anderson's fourth comedy special, Louie In St. Louie," which many called his best ever, aired on the Showtime Network that year.

Louie now brings to television his standup comedic talent that has entertained audiences for 17 years through an animated series entitled, "Life With Louie," for FOX, which he co-created with Matt O'Callaghan. The series highlights Anderson's writing and voice-over talents as the narrator, Little Louie and Little Louie's dad.

Currently, Louie is proud of the publication of a series of children's books based on the hit cartoon series, "Life With Louie." "Reading to your kids is so important," says Anderson, "My father never read to me and I missed that."

As you read this, Anderson is the current host of the nationally syndicated show, the "New Family Feud."

Show times are 10 p.m. on Friday, May 14; and 9 p.m. on Saturday May 15. Tickets are $25 plus taxes. VIP seating is available. For reservations or more information, call the Riviera Box Office at 794-9433, or log on to www.theriviera.com.

Harrah's Las Vegas recently garnered seven top awards in the Casino Player magazine's annual "Best of" issue, which touts an extensive list of "gaming's elite."

Included in the first place awards are, "Best Slots," "Best Slot Club," "Best Slot Tournaments," "Best Dealers," "Casino Where You Feel Luckiest," "Best Coffee Shop" and "Best Comedy Club."

"These seven awards are confirmation that our recent $200 million renovations helped create the best Harrah's Las Vegas ever," said Tom Jenkin, senior vice president and general manager for Harrah's Las Vegas.

One first place award went to the famous Improv Comedy Club at Harrah's, which has continued to offer top name talent for years. Casino Player agrees, because in awarding the Best Comedy Club award to Harrah's, The Improv was applauded for its "comfort," "state-of-the-art sound system," and a place to find the "freshest faces in comedy."

Carnaval as celebrated around the world is the theme that runs throughout Harrah's Las Vegas, creating a party atmosphere that is felt all over the 17.3-acre property. The Carnaval design incorporates music, icons and entertainment from those festive, international celebrations. The casino takes on the celebrations of Carnaval from the ceilings decorated with dynamic fireworks to the confetti-splashed carpeting.

Harrah's Spellbound, starring Joaquin Ayala, is an outstanding magic show with a twist, incoporating charismatic comedy and awe-inspiring artistry, all of which mesmerize and astound audiences.

La Playa Lounge offers exciting entertainment in a comfortable, relaxed atmosphere. La Playa creates the perfect beach fantasy with multi-colored palm trees, rocks intertwined with bright, fiberoptic lighting and a three-dimensional mural that illustrates the ultimate "day at the beach."

HUEY LEWIS & THE NEWS
ROCK AUDIENCES AT CAESARS PALACE

Huey Lewis and the News will rock the Caesars Palace Circus Maximus Showroom May 13-16.

Hailed America's quintessential rock 'n' roll band Huey Lewis and the News have won millions of fans with "straight-ahead" rock that has sold more than 20 million albums worldwide. The group's anthem, "The Heart of Rock 'n' Roll," and fan favorites "Heart and Soul" and "Power of Love" were some of the early show-stoppers re-released in their 1996 greatest hits album " Time Flies...The Best of Huey Lewis and the News."

The group has rocked audiences from the '80s through the '90s, winning critical raves for their 1994 album "Four Chords And Several Years Ago," which yielded No. 1 single "It's Alright."

Celebrating their 20th anniversary this year, they're preparing a new LP.

Huey Lewis and the News have been stoking audiences with incendiary rhythms since their early days performing in San Francisco Bay area rock clubs of the 1970s. Formed officially in 1979, they released their debut LP in 1980. Since then, they have fanned the flames of rock music's spirited roots guided by Lewis' simple mantra, "Always keep it pure, keep it honest."

At Caesars Palace, shows are scheduled May 13-16 at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Saturday and Sunday. On Friday, the show begins at 9 p.m. Tickets are priced at $62.50, including tax, excluding a $3 ticket handling fee. For tickets and information, call 731-7333 or (800) 445-4544.

THE LUXURY & EXCITEMENT OF VENICE NO PASSPORT REQUIRED

VISITORS TO THE VENETIAN Resort-Hotel-Casino in Las Vegas will be able to stroll beneath the majestic colonnades of the Doge's Palace, linger along the Rialto Bridge, and gaze across canals at the Campanile Tower – all full-scale reproductions of the legendary landmarks of Venice. Built with strict attention to detail, The Venetian beckons visitors to the romantic Italian island city without the need of a passport. And, so the journey begins...

As the city's most comprehensive destination resort, The Venetian promises to set a new standard for luxury and entertainment. Located at the heart of the famed Las Vegas Strip, The Venetian will offer the world's largest and most luxurious standard hotel room accommodations. Each of the 3,036 guest rooms is a suite providing an incomparable 700 square feet (the average standard room size) of living space.

A guest may retire to a plush, canopy-draped bedchamber with a spacious closet and a Venetian floral armoire including a 27" color television and safe; luxuriate in a 130 square foot bath finished in fine Italian marble and appointed with a lighted, magnified make-up mirror, hair dryer and telephone; or entertain in the sunken living room salon.

Here, amenities include an entertainment center with a second 27" color television, mini bar, fax machine with copier and computer printer capabilities as well as a separate dedicated phone line, three dual-line telephone instruments with conference and speaker phone features, a convertible sofa opening to a queen size bed, two luxurious upholstered chairs, a coffee table, writing desk with arm chair, and game table with three additional chairs.

In addition to its luxurious standard quest rooms, The Venetian offers 318 Piazza, Renaissance, Doge and Penthouse suites ranging in size from 1,300 to over 5,000 square feet. With its spacious tasteful and well-appointed rooms, The Venetian will be the pre-eminent luxury hotel in Las Vegas.

The gaming palace floor includes 2,500 slot machines including the popular multi-property, linked progressive games. Moreover, the casino's 122 table games will feature the traditional games of blackjack, craps, roulette, and Asian games, such as "Pai Gow," "Pai Gow Poker," and popular progressive table games such as "Caribbean Stud Poker," and "Let It Ride." A sportsbook, keno lounge, poker room, and single zero roulette are also featured.

Venice was home to the world's first casino, so it seems fitting that The Venetian would spare no expense in creating an optimum gaming experience for you.

At The Venetian, one's needs are met with understated punctuality, precision and gracious style. With world-class service, The Venetian's hospitality allows guests to fully enjoy all the romance and beauty of this fabled city within a city. In an atmosphere where every appointment reflects a way of living that is also an art, The Venetian is truly "a place like no other."

Come to our show.

(Or we'll come get you.)

With battles every 90 minutes, beginning at 4:00 p.m., you'll find we're most accommodating.

SIGHTS

More than ever, Las Vegas is becoming a place for the whole family to visit. Gambling, the main attraction that makes this desert paradise possible, is not the only thing in town to see or do. There are several museums and amusement parks nearby to take children to. If you have a car, take a day trip or even an overnighter to one of the West's beautiful scenic spots only hours away. Everything from water skiing to mountain climbing to miniature golf is here. There's even snow skiing in the winter just 45 minutes north. Whether you spend a month or just a few days here, you'll see desert wonders and beauty you've never imagined before. So put on some shorts and enjoy the Southern Nevada sunshine - the West at its best.

THE ADVENTUREDOME AT CIRCUS CIRCUS
Five acres of thrill rides and other attractions for all ages within a pink glass dome, climate controlled all year round. Featuring the Canyon Blaster, the only indoor double-loop, double-corkscrew roller coaster in the country. Entry into the park is free; all-day unlimited ride pass $12.95 for visitors 33-48 inches; $16.95 for visitors 48 inches or taller; and kids under 33 inches ride for free. Park opens at 10 a.m. daily. Phone 794-3939 for information.

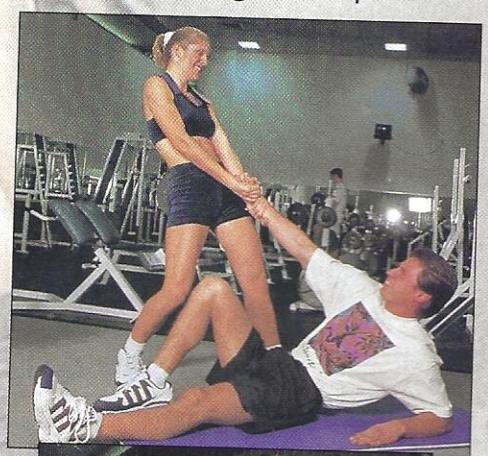
DOLPHIN HABITAT & SECRET GARDEN AT THE MIRAGE
Bottlenose dolphins reside in a special marine facility that contains 2.5 million gallons of man-made sea water and state-of-the-art environmental controls. Visitors observe and learn about these mammals. In the Secret Garden of Siegfried & Roy, some of the world's rarest and most exotic animals live side by side in harmony. See animals, including the Royal White Tigers and the White Lions of Timbavati. The Dolphin Habitat are open from 11 a.m.-7 p.m. Mon.-Fri.; 10 a.m.-7 p.m. Sat. & Sun. Secret Garden is open Mon.-Fri. (dark Wed.) 11 a.m.-5 p.m. & Sat. & Sun. 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Tickets are $10 and include both attractions. Dolphin Habitat tickets are $5 on Wednesday (when Secret Garden closes). Children under 10 admitted free with a paying adult.

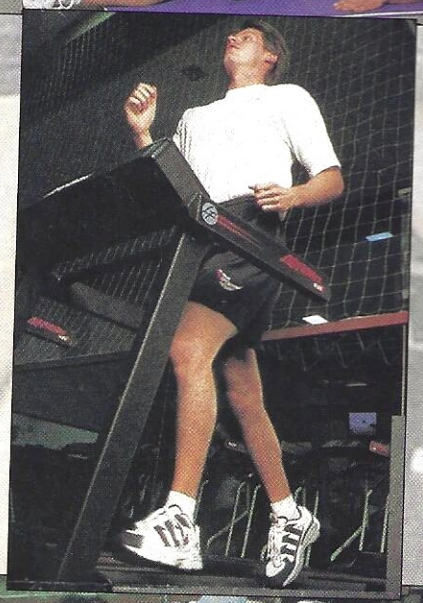
THE FLAMINGO HILTON'S WILDLIFE HABITAT
The Flamingo Hilton recently opened a 15 acre Caribbean-themed foliage and water playground. Inside you'll find all kinds of birds including (surprise!) flamingos, penguins, ducks and swans. Koi and goldfish fill the surrounding pools and Cranes and wallabies have also joined the family.

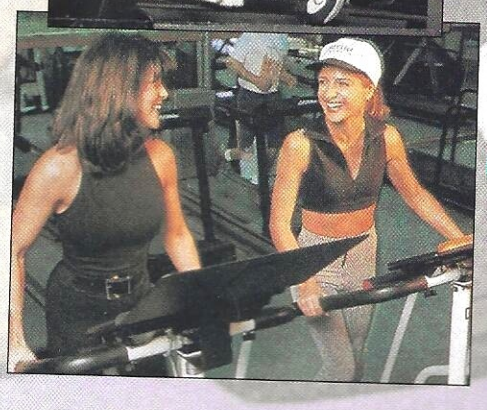
THE FORUM SHOPS AT CAESARS PALACE
Caesars Palace deserves accolades from the Greek and Roman gods for the architecture of the "Shopping Wonder of the World." Recently expanded, The Forum Shops is home to exceptional galleries, specialty shops, major retailers and world-class dining. The new expansion features 35 new stores, two new restaurants, a 50,000-gallon salt water aquarium and an animatronic "Atlantis" show. The Forum Shops is open daily from 10 a.m.-11 p.m. and 10 a.m.-midnight Friday and Saturday. Some of the shops and restaurants are open earlier and stay open later. Call 893-4800.

Be Our House Guests

at Las Vegas' upscale athletic club and spa







Of the thousands of visitors who flock to Las Vegas each week for gambling, 24-hour entertainment, fine dining and fabulous buffets, a surprising number are unwilling to forgo their exercise programs. The Sporting House, an upscale health club and spa, offers visitors House Guests — a program providing them the member privileges they would enjoy at their own health club.

"For many of our out-of-town guests, working out is part of their vacation experience. It's something they don't always have time for at home," said Corey Jenkins, vice-president of the club. "The Sporting House is also popular among business travelers who want to maintain their routine while on the road."

The House Guests program provides out-of-town guests member privileges, from use of the athletic and spa facilities to conveniences such as complimentary towels and razors.

The Sporting House has formal House Guest programs with numerous area hotels such as the Desert Inn and Crowne Plaza Suites. Guests of such hotels can pick up a $5 guest fee discount at the concierge desk. Guests of the Stratosphere Hotel Resort can pick up a voucher at the concierge desk, and they will receive a guest discount plus the convenience of having the guest fee charged directly to their room.

The Sporting House has served Southern Nevada's top business executives, entertainers, and out-of-town guest for two decades. Located just off the strip on Industrial Road, behind the Stardust and Circus Circus hotels, the athletic club and spa features state-of-the-art cardiovascular and strength-training rooms, and classes ranging from aerobics, Yoga and Tai Chi, to Cycle Reebok.

The club offers court sports including basketball, racquetball, squash, and tennis. In addition the facility also has indoor and outdoor pools and running tracks. And, for visitors who want to relax and revitalize, Sporting House amenities also include eucalyptus steams, saunas, whirlpools, massage and skin therapy, as well as a full-service hair and nail salon.

For more information on the Sporting House, call 733-8999 or visit the club at 3025 S. Industrial Road.

RESERVATIONS • 24 HOURS/7 DAYS

FREMONT STREET EXPERIENCE
An exciting pedestrian promenade located in the neon center of Las Vegas. This beautifully landscaped area includes a misting system, retail carts, kiosks and free mall entertainment. Plus, a one-of-a-kind light and sound show, derived from over two million lights and 540,000 watts of concert quality sound, comes alive each night beginning at dusk and running through 12 a.m. Various shows and performances are presented daily. For specific shows and times, phone 678-5777 or (800) 249-3559.

GAMEWORKS
Located at the Showcase (just north of the MGM Grand on Las Vegas Boulevard), Gameworks is a new entertainment experience offering visitors the best and latest technology, games, and social interaction in a unique club environment. Developed by Dreamworks SKG, Sega Enterprises, and Universal Studios, Inc., Gameworks features more than 300 of the latest and greatest games, including multi-player games and classic games. Gameworks also features Internet services, a full-service restaurant and bar, and the world's tallest free-standing rock climbing structure. Open 10 a.m.-2 a.m. Sunday-Thursday and 10 a.m.-4 a.m. Friday-Saturday. Phone 432-4263 for information.

IMPERIAL PALACE AUTO COLLECTION
The world's finest collection of antique, classic and special interest vehicles spanning nearly 100 years of automotive history. The auto collection features over 750 vehicles with more than 200 vehicles on display daily. The vehicles are continually rotated in and out of the collection to give it a fresh appeal for repeat visitors. The Auto Collection is open daily from 9:30 a.m.-11:30 p.m. and is one of the most visited attractions in Las Vegas. Admission is $6.95 for adults and $3 for seniors and children 12 and under. Phone 731-3311 for additional information.

LUXOR'S IMAX THEATRE
The IMAX Theatre at Luxor showcases state-of-the-art film technology unlike any other in Las Vegas. Projected on a screen measuring nearly seven stories high, the IMAX films have frames that are ten times the size of conventional 35mm film--resulting in awe-inspiring 2D and lifelike 3D images that envelop viewers and pull them into other worlds, from the far reaches of outer space to the lowest depths of the sea. For showtimes and information, call 262-4555.

MAGIC MOTION MACHINE AT THE EXCALIBUR
Everyone loves these true-to-life rides that use hydraulically-activated seats to simulate movement. The specially-designed seats, combined with a Dolby five- channel sound system and 70 mm Showscan film, actually make you think you're going up, over and under. Open 10 a.m.- midnight, Monday-Thursday; to 1 a.m., Friday and Saturday; 9 a.m.-midnight, Sunday. The price of admission is $3. The Magic Motion Machine is located on the Fantasy Faire level of The Excalibur. Phone 597-7777.

MANHATTAN EXPRESS AT NEW YORK-NEW YORK
There's nothing more reminiscent of the fun and excitement that embodied New York in the old days than Coney Island. Visitors of the new mega-resort can experience that nostalgia by riding the kind of roller coaster that made Coney Island famous. The Manhattan Express is the world's first coaster to feature a "heartline" twist and dive maneuver, and only the second heartline coaster to operate in the world. Riders board 16-passenger trains from inside the casino and then ascend a 203-foot tall lift. The initial drop of 75 feet is just a warm up for the 55 degree, 144-foot second drop. The ride then goes through a dizzying array or turns, hills, a vertical loop, a 540-degree spiral, and finally the sensational heartline twist and dive. The Manhattan Express is open 10 a.m.-10:30 p.m. Sunday-Thursday and 10 a.m.-12 a.m. Friday & Saturday. Tickets are $7. Phone 740-6969.

OMNIMAX THEATRE AT CAESARS PALACE
Prepare yourself for a fantastic sensory experience in this incredible dome theatre. With Omnimax's 70 mm film and wide-range giant speaker system your senses are taken for a ride to be remembered. "Wildlife: Feel The Heat" is the featured presentation and is shown daily on the giant screen of the Omnimax. Audiences are treated to a larger-than-life look at the elite crews of brave men and women training rigorously to stand between the raging flames of forest fires and us, followed by Mother Nature's most spectacular fireworks show. The show runs every hour on the hour minutes from 2-10 p.m. Sunday-Thursday and from noon to 10 p.m. on Friday & Saturday. Admission is $7 for adults; and $5 for children ages 2-12, senior citizens (55 and older), Caesars Palace guests, the physically challenged and military personnel. For additional information, phone 731-7900.

PINBALL 2000 AT NEW YORK NEW YORK
Pinball 2000, exclusively at Coney Island Emporium inside the New York-New York Hotel & Casino, combines classic pinball elements with state-of-the-art computer and video technology. The result is a totally immersive pinball experience that takes the familiar silver ball and flippers to a whole new level of interactive entertainment. Players will immediately notice the difference as they approach the game to drop their first coin.

RACE FOR ATLANTIS AT THE FORUM SHOPS
Race For Atlantis, the world's first giant-screen IMAX® 3-D motion simulator ride, debuts in The Forum Shops at Caesars Palace. As part of the experience, riders are outfitted with an E3D electronic headset, which houses the IMAX® Personal Sound Environment (PSE) system and the liquid crystal shutters that, when synchronized via infrared signal with the IMAX® 3-D projector, produce the ride's unique, immersive environment. The ride is open from 10 a.m.-11 p.m. (10 a.m.-midnight Friday & Saturday). Tickets are $9.50 for adults, $6.75 for children under 12, $8.50 for 55 and over, and $8 for Nevada residents and students. Phone 1-888-910-RACE for more information.

STAR TREK: THE EXPERIENCE AT LAS VEGAS HILTON
This spectacular attraction transports guests aboard the USS Enterprise where they'll venture to the Bridge, travel on a Turbo Lift, speed along the Grand Corridor and brave an exciting shuttlecraft mission through space and time. Guests can also dine in Quark's Bar and Restaurant, shop the largest selection of Star Trek merchandise in the universe and even visit with Ferengi, Klingons and other interplanetary visitors. Open 11 a.m.-11 p.m. Tickets are $14.95 (discounts available for Nevada residents.) Call 1-888-GO-BOLDLY or 697-8750.

STRATOSPHERE TOWER
The 1,149-foot Stratosphere Tower is the tallest free-standing observation tower in the United States. Amenities to enjoy include an elegant revolving restaurant and lounge, indoor and outdoor observation decks, and two of the world's highest and most exhilarating rides more than 100 stories above the ground. The Tower and rides are open from 10 a.m.-1 a.m. Sunday-Thursday and 10 a.m.-2 a.m. Friday, Saturday & holidays. Tickets to the top of the Tower are $6 for adults and teenagers; $3 for Nevada residents, senior citizens 55 and over, and children ages 4-12. It's free for children 3 and under. The Big Shot ride is $6 and the High Roller roller coaster is $5. For more information, phone 380-7777 or (800) 99-TOWER.

TIGER HABITAT AT THE MIRAGE
Hundreds of daily visitors are fascinated by the Tiger Habitat at the Mirage where they can watch Royal White Tigers doze or play in an open-air environment. The species of snow-white tiger, which comes from the Himalayas, is extinct in the wild. But thanks to illusionists Siegfried & Roy, the beautiful animals are treated like royalty here. Open 24 hours. Free Admission.

TREASURE ISLAND'S BUCCANEER BAY
The signature of Treasure Island is Buccaneer Bay, a facade at the front of the property where the 90-foot long pirate ship Hispaniola is docked. The British frigate Royal Brittania sails around Skull Point to confront the pirates, and a battle ensues. Shows run every 90 minutes, Sunday-Thursday from 4-10 p.m. & Friday-Saturday from 4-11:30 p.m.

TREASURES OF MANDALAY BAY COIN MUSEUM
The Treasures of Mandalay Bay features a $40 million permanent collection of rare gold and silver coins, colorful and unique Old West bank notes and historic Nevada mining town memorabilia, such as 19th century gold bars and assay receipts. The museum is open everyday from 9 a.m. to midnight. Admission is $6 per person (children under 12 are free) and includes a brochure describing the historical significance of exhibit items.

THE VENETIAN PREVIEW CENTER
Even though it's just a sample of the world's largest resort, the $1.5 million Preview Center is a site in itself. The center includes a complete life-size replica of a Venetian Suite, a canal and gondola, statues, and architectural previews of the interior and exterior of the resort. Located on The Strip across from the Mirage, the center is open from 10 a.m.-10 p.m. seven days a week. Please phone 733-5000 for more information.

DININGUIDE

Finding a bad meal in Las Vegas is harder than finding a clock in a casino. Visitors seem never to get over the 49-cent breakfasts and $2 steak dinners, but with more than 750 restaurants, Las Vegas has a lot more to offer than all-you-can-eat buffets. And, like the more publicized bargains, many of these restaurants offer very reasonable prices, considering the quality of food and service.

Las Vegas has always been known for its American cuisine and "gourmet rooms." In addition, the town has numerous excellent Italian restaurants. In recent years, diners have seen a tremendous growth in the number of Oriental and other specialty houses, appealing to visitors and locals alike.

ALEXIS PARK

Pegasus: A friendly, beautiful restaurant serving breakfast, lunch & dinner. For dinner, enjoy fine cuisine in a comfortable, elegant atmosphere. Open from 6 a.m.-10 p.m. daily.
Pisces Lounge: Cocktails and a delicious continental menu. Open from 4 p.m.-midnight. Live music Friday & Saturday.

BALLY'S LAS VEGAS

al Dente: One of Las Vegas' most original restaurants. Al Dente serves a wide selection of Italian fare including gourmet pizzas, salads, appetizers, & desserts. Open from 6-11 p.m. nightly. Closed Thursday & Friday.
Bally's Steak House: New York club-like ambiance. Great selection of beef, chops, seafood, and chicken specialties. Scrumptious desserts including the house specialty, banana-cream pie. Open Thursday- Monday from 5:30-10:30 p.m. Make reservations at 739-4661.
Big Kitchen Buffet: Over-sized kitchen, complete with over-sized dishes. Changing menus, but constant service. Breakfast served 7-11 a.m. for $8.95; lunch from 11 a.m.-2:30 p.m. for $9.95; and dinner 4:30-10 p.m. for $13.95.
Chang's: This authenic Chinese dining experience features Hong Kong-style dishes with a Mandarin and Taiwanese flair. Lunch served from 11:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. and dinner from 6-11 p.m. Make reservations at 739-4111.
Mall restaurants: Cafe Sbarro, Stage Deli, Ichiban.
Seasons: Continental cuisine to satisfy your summer, winter, spring & fall palates. Menu selections change with the seasons. Winner of the prestigious Five Star Diamond Award. Open from 6-11 p.m. Closed Sunday & Monday. Make reservations at 739-4651. Jacket required.
The Sidewalk Cafe: Open 24 hrs. Dress casual.
Snack Bar: Open from 7 a.m.-2 a.m. daily.

BARBARY COAST

Drai's on the Strip: Gourmet dining at its finest. Wide selection of menu items. Open daily from 5:30 p.m. For reservations, phone 737-7111.
Michael's: Exquisite entrees served in an elegant environment for those who want the best. Reservations are strongly suggested. Seatings at 6-6:30 p.m. and 9-9:30 p.m. Phone 737-7111 for reservations.

WINNERS

It's been called the city of "lost wages" but winning is what Las Vegas is all about. There are the legends, like the mysterious man who plopped down a suitcase full of cash, $250,000, on the "Don't Pass Line" on a Horseshoe Club craps table. He doubled his money and disappeared before anyone could learn his name. But most are less mysterious, like Anthony Colia who hit a 1/4 million dollar jackpot on a Caesars Palace slot tournament. In this era of progressive payoffs, there have even been a few instant millionaires. Well, here are the winners.

CALIFORNIA HOTEL

A vacationer from Aiea, Hawaii, became $407,963 richer after he hit a Wheel of Fortune Quarters MegaJackpot at the California Hotel- Casino & RV Park.

Ronald Y. Migita, had only $5 invested in the machine when the winning symbols lined up.

"I brought my daughter on this trip," he said. "I think she is my good luck charm."

Migita intends to use some of his winnings on a new truck.
